BUDGET

HOUSE REPUBLICANS

REP. JASON SMITH, REPUBLICAN LEADER

When asked to defend a massive spending agenda, President Biden said:

"What would they have me cut? What would they have me leave out?"

We are glad you asked, Mr. President.

"World's Greatest Frisbee Park"

Norwich, CT is tossing $30,000 from the American Rescue Plan at expanding a disc golf course to 18 holes – part of a larger effort that includes upgrading a playground, tennis court improvements, and building outdoor exercise stations.

We assume the city will be getting a call soon from Senator Dick Durbin (D-IL) who had this to say earlier this week:

"I met with a group of mayors over the weekend and county officials. And I warned them months ago when we put this money on the table that I didn't want to hear about the world's greatest frisbee park being built as a result of it -- do something serious that we can defend."

That's the problem: there's not much defensible about the American Rescue Plan. It spent less than 9% of its money on combatting COVID and then opened the door to hundreds of billions in waste and abuse of federal tax dollars.

Stay tuned for more.
